

Useful links

<http://www.5tigers.org/index.htm>

A study of the five remaining species of tiger with primary-level games, activities, and interactive projects

http://www.bbc.co.uk/schools/4_11/index.shtml

BBC Schools Online, with resources for 5–11 years, and material on Literacy, Numeracy and other learning resources

<http://www.svtc.org.uk/>

Scottish Virtual Teachers Centre

<http://mythicjourneys.org/bigmyth/>

International Association of Intercultural Education resource – an animated exploration of myths, but may be too advanced for some primary pupils

<http://www.hitentertainment.com/bobthebuilder/uk/intro.html>

Could be useful for KS1 pupils

<http://www.schoolsnet.com/cgi-bin/inetcgi/schoolsnet/primary/index.jsp>

Schoolsnet primary resources

ed-u.com

A huge education portal

<http://www.funwithspot.com/>

Web site for Spot the dog, suitable for KS1 and younger

<http://www.primaryresources.co.uk/>

Contains resources for English, maths, science, art and homework

<http://www.rmplc.co.uk/orgs/nape/index.html>

National Association for Primary Education

<http://www.roalddahl.com/index3.htm>

Good literacy ideas

<http://www.literacytrust.org.uk/Update/scottishpoverty.html>

Scotland's literacy targets

<http://www.literacytrust.org.uk/Update/Wales/>

Approaches to literacy in Wales

<http://www.schoolassemblies.btinternet.co.uk/>

Assembly ideas for primary schools – with an emphasis on Christian themes but including others suitable for other faiths

<http://www.teachers.net/>

Site for teachers, including chat rooms, news bulletins and educational news

<http://www.teachingideas.co.uk/>

Teaching ideas for primary teachers

<http://www.tes.co.uk/teacher/primaryplus/index.asp>

TES Primary Plus – you will need a password from the latest issue of the TES to access the site