<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Ch.</th>
<th>New Edition</th>
<th>New Edition Changes</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1   | Introduction                 | • Entire chapter revised
• Includes additional discussion questions and resources at the end of the chapter
• The capabilities approach is introduced
• The Occupy Movement is introduced                                                                              |
| 2   | The Self-Aware Organizer     | • Entire chapter revised
• Includes additional discussion questions and resources at the end of the chapter
• Failure is added to one of the perils of organizing
• Solidarity/community is added to An Organizer’s Path to Meaning and Success
• The Practice of Self-Inquiry is introduced in this chapter                                                        |
| 3   | Theories and Ideas for the   | • Entire chapter revised
• Includes additional discussion questions and resources at the end of the chapter
• Queer theory, critical race theory and an expansion of the Anarchist approach in relation to the Occupy Movement is introduced |
|     | Progressive Organizer        |                                                                                                                                                  |
| 4   | Learning from Social         | • Entire chapter revised
• Includes additional discussion questions and resources at the end of the chapter
• An entire new section on the Civil Rights movement is presented                                               |
|     | Movements                    |                                                                                                                                                  |
| 5   | Critical Organizing          | • Entire chapter revised
• Includes additional discussion questions and resources at the end of the chapter
• An expansion of Myles Horton’s biography is provided
• The section formerly titled “Reckoning with the Past” is now called “Processes of Reconciliation” and has been expanded on |
|     | Frameworks                   |                                                                                                                                                  |
| 6   | Organizing People:           | • Entire chapter revised
• Includes additional discussion questions and resources at the end of the chapter
• The post-Katrina right to return campaign, a case study that has been spread throughout the book is now all condensed into this chapter |
|     | Constituencies and           |                                                                                                                                                  |
|     | Coalitions                   |                                                                                                                                                  |
| 7   | Toward Empowering            | • Entire chapter revised
• Includes additional discussion questions and resources at the end of the chapter
• Spotlight on Youth Organizing is in this chapter and includes a new case study of a group called Youth Riot |
|     | Organizations                 |                                                                                                                                                  |
| 8   | Language Matters:            | • Entire chapter revised
• Includes additional discussion questions and resources at the end of the chapter
• Messaging and the art of the march is included in this chapter
• There is a new case study of welfare rights group called Our Knowledge, Our Power |
|     | Issue Framing and Communication |                                                                                                                                                     |
| 9   | Tactics for Change; PART III | • Entire chapter revised
• Includes additional discussion questions and resources at the end of the chapter
• There is a new section called Negotiation, Consensus and Nonviolent Communication
• There is a new section on Cultural Development
• The Case Study, Organizing with Older Adults is now in this chapter                                                  |
|     | Enduring and Emergent        |                                                                                                                                                  |
| 10  | Toward Solidarity:           | • Entire chapter revised
• Includes additional discussion questions and resources at the end of the chapter
• Understanding Oppression and Working With Identity Politics
• Added sub-section on liberation theology to the Catholic Social justice section                                           |
|     | Understanding Oppression and |                                                                                                                                                  |
|     | Working With Identity Politics|                                                                                                                                                  |
| 11  | Religious and Spiritual      | • Entire chapter revised
• Includes additional discussion questions and resources at the end of the chapter
• Added sub-section on liberation theology to the Catholic Social justice section                                           |
|     | Aspects of Organizing        |                                                                                                                                                  |
| 12  | Global Justice: Organization | • Entire chapter revised
• Includes additional discussion questions and resources at the end of the chapter
• Multi-lingual capacity building has been moved to this chapter (it was previously in Chapter 7)
• A new case study on transnational action research in post-earthquake Haiti has been added to this chapter |
|     | and Resistance                |                                                                                                                                                  |