ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

Alleviating Poverty through Profitable Partnerships

I. Online Resources
   a. General Online Resources
   b. Online Resources to support:
      - Chapter 1
      - Chapter 2
      - Chapter 3
      - Chapter 4
      - Chapter 5
      - Chapter 6
      - Chapter 7
      - Chapter 8

II. Supplemental Resources in Connection with
    - Chapter 1
    - Chapter 2
    - Chapter 3
Online Resources

General Resources

Chapter 1: World Poverty in the 21st Century

United Nations Declaration of Human Rights

Chapter 2: Failed Strategies in the Alleviation of Poverty

Chapter 3: Mental Models and Contributing Biases on Global Poverty

Chapter 4: Narratives of Multinational For-Profit Enterprises and Corporate Social Responsibility

Chapter 5: Global Poverty and Moral Imagination

Chapter 6: Institutional Barriers, Moral Risk and Transformative Business Ventures

Chapter 7: Public-Private Partnerships and Poverty Alleviation

Chapter 8: Future Prospects for Profitable Partnerships

Supplemental Readings
Chapter 1: World Poverty in the 21st Century

Chapter 2: Failed Strategies in the Alleviation of Poverty

Chapter 3: Mental Models and Contributing Biases on Global Poverty

Chapter 4: Narratives of Multinational For-Profit Enterprises and Corporate Social Responsibility

Chapter 5: Global Poverty and Moral Imagination

Chapter 6: Institutional Barriers, Moral Risk and Transformative Business Ventures

Phillips, N., N. Karra, and P. Tracey. 2007. Rethinking institutional distance: Using neo-institutional theory to inform international management. Academy of Management Best Papers.

Chapter 7: Public-Private Partnerships and Poverty Alleviation

Chapter 8: Future Prospects for Profitable Partnerships

Charlottesville, VA: University of Virginia Darden Publishing.