Project Part One (continued): Revised Project Plan

Refining your Dependent Variable and Getting Permissions if Needed

(Hand in ONE form for your group.)

Final Group Members:

_________________________________  ____________________________________
_________________________________  ____________________________________
_________________________________  ____________________________________

Name of Contact Member: _____________________   Email: _____________

1. What is the general area for your project?  (Use key words the way you would for a literature search) ____________________________________________

2. What specifically will you count? ______________________

3. What population will you be working with? _________________________

4. What permissions will you need to obtain? ___________________________________
   Who will be responsible for getting needed permissions? ________________________
   When do you expect to have the permissions in hand? __________________________

5. During what hours and what days will you be taking data?
   (Show schedule for each group member)
   ______________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________

6. Sketch the data recording form you plan to use. If you need more space, use the back of this page or attach a separate sheet.

7. Who will be responsible for each part of the Research Report?
   Intro & literature review ____________
   Methods ______________
   Results _________________
   Discussion ______________
   Printing the graphs __________
   Assembling the final report ______